

Alternative Badgevent Activity Cards – Page 1

Fill up your 12-Day Badgevent calendar for some international fun! Cut out, fold and glue the cards together to make neat little activity cards that fit in the Badgevent envelope pockets.

Partridge in a Pear Tree

On the first day of Christmas...
Try a tasty pear, add them to a fruit salad, or have a go at a new recipe that uses pears.

If you're looking for an extra challenge, why not try baking bread in the shape of a partridge in a pear tree?

4 Colly Birds

On the fourth day of Christmas...
Sing a call and response song, or
'sing a song of sixpence'.

The Old English term 'colly birds' refers to blackbirds due to their 'coal-y' colour. Nowadays, this traditional lyric is sometimes heard as "calling birds" instead.

6 Geese a-Laying

Take part in a bauble and spoon race – but remember not to use the glass ones that might break.

As a festive twist on a traditional egg and spoon race, pop your bauble on a spoon and hold it while you run.

11 Pipers Piping

Pretend you're playing the pipe and act out a festive tune.

For a musical twist on the classic Christmas game of charades, can your friends and family guess the song you're piping?

12 Drummers Drumming

Create your own drum from materials of your choice.

You could even make a full drum kit from cardboard boxes or pots and pans, and a couple of wooden spoons would make great drum sticks too!
