

Animal Tracks Match Up

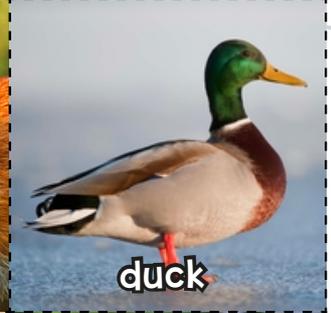

Cut out the tracks and the animals and then match the animal tracks with the animal that made them! Find the answers on page 2.

Take photos of the tracks you find to help with identification and keep a record of which animals are in the area.

Here's an idea!
Why not create an animal track journal and draw the tracks you see on your adventures?

Need a little help?
Head to www.wildlifetrusts.org/how-identify/identify-tracks for some animal track info.

All but one photo has been provided by The Wildlife Trusts. Can you guess which is the odd one out?
