Leaders:

Stuck deciding which Pawprint Badge to do next? Then you're in luck!

Our badge selector spinner is here to help you and your group decide which Pawprint Badge will provide your next adventure. Suitable for use with all ages it's a little bit of light-hearted fun. We've also included a blank template so you can use it for any other tricky decisions!

Instructions:

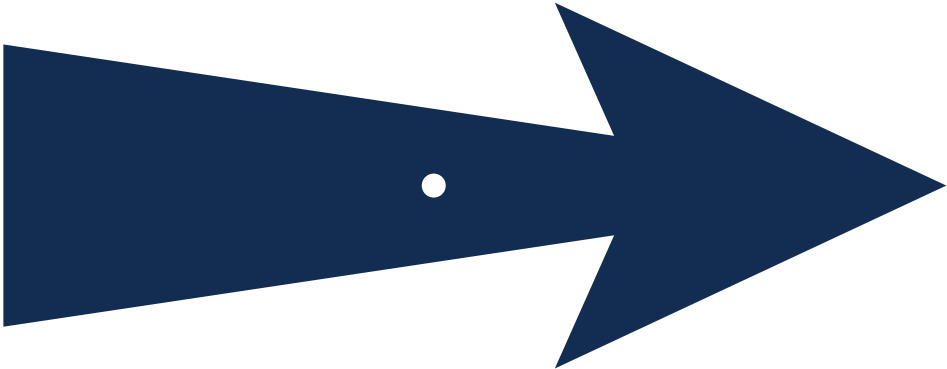

To make your spinner:

1. Print the following template in colour.
2. Stick on to cardboard an old cereal or cardboard box will do.
3. Cut out spinner and arrow. Take care as this may be tricky.
4. Push split-pin through the middle of the arrow.
5. Make larger hole in the centre of the spinner so the split-pin can move freely.
6. Put split-pin through the hole in the spinner and separate the 'legs' of the split-pin to secure it.
7. Ensure your arrow can spin freely.

To use your spinner:

1. Incorporate into your planning meeting OR...
2. Break into small groups, each using the spinner to decide on a badge.
