Craft

PAWPRINT
BADGES

Coins featuring the King are now in circulation! Construct a giant 3D coin out of craft materials of your choice. Challenge yourself to make King Charles III's face visible on the front of your coin. Why not paint your coin in gold too?

King Charles III might wear the Sovereign's Ring during the coronation ceremony. Craft your own Sovereign's Ring.

Create a bunch of Beefeater peg people ready to stand guard at King Charles III's coronation ceremony. Check out our 'King Charles III Coronation' board on Pinterest for pictures and instructions on how to make yours.

Paint a portrait of how the King will look wearing the coronation crown.

The King and the Queen Consort are said to board the Golden Coach after the coronation ceremony. Make your own Golden Coach with craft materials of your choice. Would your coach be sturdy enough to roll through the streets of London carrying such important guests?

Food

Bake some coronation themed cupcakes to enjoy before, or on the day of, the coronation. Will your cupcakes be topped with a crown fit for the King? You could even decorate them in patriotic colours.

Try making a special Creamy Coronation Fried Chicken Burger to celebrate. Find a recipe to follow on our 'King Charles III Coronation' Pinterest board.

In 2020, Clarence House revealed that King Charles III's favourite brunch recipe is cheesy baked eggs! Make your own with a recipe of your choice. You could enjoy your dish on the morning of His Majesty the King's coronation.

The King is said to enjoy wild mushroom risotto with lamb. Try this dish if you've never had it before. Make the dish vegetarian by leaving out the lamb.

Some believe that King Charles III prefers to eat a plant-based diet. Make a plant-based dish (or three) of your choice! Can you go a whole day eating only plant-based dishes for breakfast, lunch and dinner?

Games

PAWPRINT
BADGES

Play a game of 'Kings in the Corner', a card game for two to four players and for those with great patience.

King Charles III's coronation will be the first and only time that he will wear St. Edward's Crown. This particular crown is said to be exceptionally heavy. Maybe because of all of the jewels it holds! Guess how many jewels are on St. Edward's Crown.

See how many words you can make out of the letters in 'C O R O N A T I O N'.

Play 'Keeper of the Crown'. One player sits blindfolded on a chair in the middle of the circle, with a crown underneath their seat. One player from the circle is chosen to take and hide the crown quietly. The keeper has 3 guesses to guess who it was, otherwise they lose their seat to the crown thief!

Turn a simple game of snap into a royal triumph... The first person to 'snap' a pair of Kings wins the entire game!

Other

The reverse of the new coins will feature the four quarters of the Royal Arms and emblems of the home nations. Discover what these emblems are and what they mean.

Our King can play the cello, piano and trumpet. Have a go at playing one.

Discover the details of King Charles III's coronation. Where and when will it take place? Who will be there? Will you be watching?!

King Charles III is known to be able to speak Welsh. Learn some Welsh or practise speaking the language.

Some people don't know that the King authored a children's book! Have a read of 'The Old Man of Lochnagar', published by King Charles III in 1991.

Draw or write out a timeline containing the reigning monarchs of the last 100+ years, with King Charles III, our current King, at the end of line.
