Design your own Festive Stamps

Did you know that more than one BILLION Christmas cards are delivered in the UK every year? Most of these will have special festive stamps to celebrate the season — the first of which were designed by school children in 1966. Have a go at designing your own festive stamps using the templates below.

Your stamps could look like this!

© Pawprint Family 2026.