Meet the FAMILY

Hi there! We're Charlotte & Jamie, the husband and wife team behind the Pawprint Family and we believe in #AdventureForAll.

It's our mission to help leaders, teachers and parents save time by providing ideas and opportunities to help them deliver everyday adventure and skills for life. We do this through our family of brands; find out more below and head to the website for your next adventure!

PAWPRINT BADGES

Pawprint Badges provides thousands of free activity ideas and resources to help leaders, teachers and parents deliver fun and adventure.

Every activity helps you share skills for life and is linked to one of our pawesome embroidered badges. Build your collection and celebrate adventures, new skills and knowledge gained.

PAWPRINT TRAILS

Pawprint Trails are treasure-hunt style walks around locations in the UK. Solve puzzles, track down the answers and explore everything our great country has to offer.

From historical sights to popular culture discover something new or rediscover a love for where you live then collect the badge to remember your adventures!

Whether you're looking for the perfect addition to your next family holiday or a few hours of fun with friends; each trail can be completed in a few hours or extended with our activity suggestions in to a weekend or a week's worth of fun!

PAWPRINT TALES

Pawprint Tales are fully illustrated stories that can be enjoyed by the whole family. Join Alfie (our fox-red Labrador) on his adventures around the UK – solving puzzles, turning detective and making new friends. With twists and turns, every tale is an opportunity to discover new places, people and history without needing to leave the comfort of your own home.

Enjoy Pawprint Tales alongside your Pawprint Trails or as a standalone adventure!

PAWPRINT TRUST

Every brand in the Pawprint Family supports the Pawprint Trust with a percentage of profits from every sale providing grants to young people. We're passionate about enabling young people to access life changing adventures.

Share your adventures and join us over on our social channels for even more adventures and a nosy behind the scenes at Pawprint HQ!

Craft

PAWPRINT
BADGES

- 📍 Draw a picture of the English rose, the national flower of England.
- 📍 The bus is London's oldest form of public transport. Craft a double decker bus out of an old egg carton and paint it in its iconic red colour.
- 📍 England is known for its wet weather. Decorate an umbrella.

Did you know?

The wettest day recorded in England was in Cumbria on the 5th of December 2015 when 341.5mm of rain fell in a single day!

- 📍 Build a famous landmark from England such as the Eden Project, The Angel of the North, Hadrian's Wall or Brighton Pier using materials of your choice.
- 📍 Did you know the toothbrush was invented in England in 1770 by William Addis? Use a toothbrush to create some unique paint patterns.
- 📍 England is home to the famous medieval knight Robin Hood, who stole from the rich to give to the poor. Robin Hood was also famous for his iconic bow and arrow. Make your own bow and arrow out of junk model materials.
- 📍 Design teacup shaped invitations to invite friends to an English tea party.

Here's an idea!

English people are huge tea lovers, drinking around 100 million cups per day! That's a lot of teabags! Why not create your invitations on tea stained paper?

- 📍 Paddington Bear is a famous children's book character who lives with the Brown family at 32 Windsor Gardens, London. Make Paddington's famous brown P.B. suitcase using an old shoebox.
- 📍 Put together an outfit for a English music festival such as Glastonbury.

Did you know?

Glastonbury festival was founded by Michael Eavis, an English dairy farmer. He set up the event in an attempt to get rid of his debt, and it quickly became one of the world's most famous music festivals. In April 2024, Michael Eavis received a knighthood for his services to music and charity.

- 📍 J.M.W. Turner and L.S. Lowry are amongst some of the most well known artists of all time and are both English. Take a look at some of their most famous works or try creating your own masterpiece.

Food

PAWPRINT
BADGES

- 📍 Fish and chips is often considered England's national dish but what is the best accompaniment? Make or try different sides from your local chip shop such as mushy peas, onion rings or pickled onions.
- 📍 Afternoon tea was introduced in England in 1840 by the 7th Duchess of Bedford. Put together your own afternoon tea to enjoy with friends, family or members of your group - be sure to include plenty of tea, scones with jam and clotted cream, sandwiches and other sweet treats of your choice.
- 📍 Enjoy a traditional English breakfast.
- 📍 Try a classic English pudding such as treacle tart, spotted dick, jam roly-poly or sticky toffee pudding. Don't forget to top with plenty of custard!
- 📍 Create an edible version of the English flag using white and red ingredients. You could create a starter using tomatoes and mozzarella or a sweet treat using strawberries and meringue.
- 📍 Cook up a classic English dish using sausages such as toad in the hole or bangers and mash.

Did you know?

Bangers and Mash supposedly got its name during World War I, when food shortages meant that sausages were being made with different ingredients. The change in ingredients meant that the sausages exploded when cooked.

- 📍 Pies have been a popular food in England for centuries and have been enjoyed by many over time, including kings and queens at their royal banquets. Find a recipe for a sweet or savoury pie and try making it.
- 📍 Invent your dream chocolate bar by using a variety of different toppings. You could use sprinkles, sweets, biscuits or any other treat of your choice.

Why?

The first chocolate bar was invented in 1847 by English type-founder Joseph Fry.

- 📍 Find out the difference between a shepherd's Pie and a cottage Pie. Why not try both and see which one you prefer?
- 📍 Did you know that Gloucestershire in England hold an annual cheese rolling event? Watch some videos of this event whilst enjoying some English types of cheese such as Stilton, Red Leicester or Wensleydale.

Games

PAWPRINT
BADGES

- 📍 The Summer Olympic games has been held in England 3 times (1908, 1948 and 2012). Host your own mini Olympic games. You could even craft your own medals and add this to your craft challenge.
- 📍 Play a game of Sleeping Lions.

Why?

The Three Lions are featured on the England football shirt and have a rich history that dates back to the 12th century. The first lion appeared on Henry I's royal standard in 1100. After he married Adeliza, whose father also had a lion on his shield, Henry added a second lion to his standard to celebrate their marriage. In 1154, Henry II married Eleanor of Aquitaine, who had a lion on her family crest too. This brought the total to the royal standard. Later, Richard I, also known as Richard the Lionheart, made the three lions a symbol of the English throne. The symbol of the three lions still remains important in England and in 1996, a song called 'Three Lions' was released. The song became an anthem for England fans, sung to encourage the team during major football tournaments such as the World Cup and the European Championships.

- 📍 Play 'Oranges and Lemons' the playground game which refers to several of the churches close to or in the City of London. If you get caught on the line of "chop off your head" then you sit out.
- 📍 St George's Day is celebrated on the 23rd April each year. Find 23 red or white items around your house.
- 📍 Wimbledon is one of the most famous tennis tournaments in the world and is held in Wimbledon, London every year. Play a game of tennis with friends or family or learn some new tennis skills.
- 📍 Hopscotch, Hide and Seek and Simon Says are traditional English playground games. Have a go at playing these or find some others to have a go at.
- 📍 In 2022, the Lionesses were crowned UEFA Women's EURO champions. Play a game of football or arrange your own tournament.
- 📍 England is famous for its pubs and inns. Play some traditional pub games such as Marbles, Dominoes and Backgammon.
- 📍 Put together a quiz full of questions all about the Royal Family. Who's knowledge will crown them the champion?
- 📍 London Zoo was the first zoo in the world to contain a children's zoo. Play a game of pairs, can you match the animal footprint to the correct animal?
