

World War II Evacuee Suitcase

Use the blank suitcase to draw or cut and stick the items you would take if you were a World War II evacuee. Remember, space was very limited so evacuees could only pack essential belongings. Think carefully about what would help you feel safe, comfortable, and prepared while away from home.

