Meet the FAMILY

Hi there! We're Charlotte & Jamie, the husband and wife team behind the Pawprint Family and we believe in #AdventureForAll.

It's our mission to help leaders, teachers and parents save time by providing ideas and opportunities to help them deliver everyday adventure and skills for life. We do this through our family of brands; find out more below and head to the website for your next adventure!

PAWPRINT BADGES

Pawprint Badges provides thousands of free activity ideas and resources to help leaders, teachers and parents deliver fun and adventure.

Every activity helps you share skills for life and is linked to one of our pawesome embroidered badges. Build your collection and celebrate adventures, new skills and knowledge gained.

PAWPRINT TRAILS

Pawprint Trails are treasure-hunt style walks around locations in the UK. Solve puzzles, track down the answers and explore everything our great country has to offer.

From historical sights to popular culture discover something new or rediscover a love for where you live then collect the badge to remember your adventures!

Whether you're looking for the perfect addition to your next family holiday or a few hours of fun with friends; each trail can be completed in a few hours or extended with our activity suggestions in to a weekend or a week's worth of fun!

PAWPRINT TALES

Pawprint Tales are fully illustrated stories that can be enjoyed by the whole family. Join Alfie (our fox-red Labrador) on his adventures around the UK - solving puzzles, turning detective and making new friends. With twists and turns, every tale is an opportunity to discover new places, people and history without needing to leave the comfort of your own home.

Enjoy Pawprint Tales alongside your Pawprint Trails or as a standalone adventure!

PAWPRINT TRUST

Every brand in the Pawprint Family supports the Pawprint Trust with a percentage of profits from every sale providing grants to young people. We're passionate about enabling young people to access life changing adventures.

Share your adventures and join us over on our social channels for even more adventures and a nosy behind the scenes at Pawprint HQ!

Award yourselves a badge for supporting your young adventurers in their activities!

TOP TIPS

- Adapt activities as necessary to meet your needs.
- Add your own activity ideas or develop them into projects.
- Use what you have; don't buy in lots of new materials/equipment.
- No need to send us evidence, responsible grown-ups decide when the badge has been earned.
- One challenge badge can take as long as you like; from a few hours to days or even a full term!

Craft

PAWPRINT
BADGES

-  Design an outfit for a St Andrew's Day parade. Will it be blue and white to represent St. Andrew's flag? Draw it out on paper or make the outfit out of craft materials of your choice.
-  Create your own St. Andrew's Day greetings cards and give them to friends and family this St. Andrew's Day.
-  St. Andrew was a fisherman before he became a disciple with his brother, Peter. For a tricky challenge, have a go at crocheting a 'fisherman's rib' stitch. Why not make an item of clothing using this stitching technique?
-  Have a go at paper weaving and weave your way towards a Scottish arty tartan masterpiece!
-  If you were made the Patron Saint of Scotland, what would you want your flag to look like? Design or make a flag you would like people to wave if you become Patron Saint of Scotland.

Food

-  Create a food center piece in the shape of the Saltire. How many different blue and white foods can you think of that you could use?
-  Scots sometimes enjoy a bowl of Cullen Skink on St. Andrew's Day. Have a go at making your own batch.
-  St. Andrew's Day is celebrated on the 30th November every year. Bake a Scottish-themed tray bake and share it with 30 friends, family or colleagues.
-  Put together a St. Andrew's Day feast with Scottish delicacies of your choice.
-  Some people in Romania are said to eat garlic the night before St. Andrew's Day to ward off evil spirits. Cook a dish using plenty of garlic. It'll keep the vampires away too!
-  Create a dish using ingredients that begin with every letter of 'ST. ANDREW'. For example, you could use sultanas, treacle, apples, nuts, dates, etc.

Games

PAWPRINT
BADGES

-  Scotland is home to the Old Course at St Andrews, one of the most famous golf courses in the UK. Putt your skills to the test with a round of golf.
-  According to Christianity, St. Andrew was one of the 12 disciples of Jesus. Play a game with a partner to see who can remember the names of all 12 disciples the quickest.
-  Play a game of 'Simon Say's but this time, St. Andrew says what to do.
-  St. Andrew was a fisherman. Sing the nursery rhyme 'Once I Caught a Fish Alive' with the gestures to match.
-  Play a game of 'Cat and Mouse' but instead of the cat and mouse weaving in and out of a grid, they have to make their way through St. Andrew's cross!
-  A Saltire scavenger hunt. Find as many blue and white objects as you can around your home and create a life-size Saltire in your living room or unit.

Other

-  For a bigger St. Andrew's Day adventure, take a trip to the seaside town of St Andrews on the east coast of Scotland. Why not visit around the time of St. Andrew's Day and join in with the celebrations?
-  Discover how the Saltire became the flag of Scotland in the Battle at Athelstaneford.
-  Take a look around St. Andrew's Cathedral in Fife. Dive into the history of St. Andrew, the Patron Saint of Scotland, and the medieval history of the church.
-  St. Andrew's Day is celebrated in November, in the Autumn. Wrap up warm in your woolly hat and scarf and go for a nice Autumnal stroll with family.
-  Visit the ruins of St Andrew's castle.
-  Some believe St. Andrew never actually visited Scotland! He is said to have been born in Bethsaida. Find out more about the history of this town.
