

Secret Santa Wish List

Whether you're doing Secret Santa in the office or with friends, this handy printable is here so you're sure to get something you love this Christmas! Not that we want to sound ungrateful but who really needs another pair of socks...unless you're Charlotte, then you always need more socks*!

So, all you have to do is print it out, cut it up, give each person a template (write the budget in before hand if you like) and then collect them all back in folded up. Each person draws a name at random and hey-presto, they've instantly got 3 great ideas for gifts...everyone's a winner!

*Drop us a line if you want to find out more about Charlotte's sock obsession!
