Craft

PAWPRINT
BADGES

- ✂ The Sagittarius constellation is also known as 'the Archer' and is represented by a centaur drawing a bow. Craft your own bow and arrow. Why not see how far you can shoot it for your Games challenge?
- ✂ Centaurs are half human and half horse. Design your own hybrid creature and give it a name.
- ✂ Make a collage from two pictures or magazine pages about different themes. What can you create by blending them together?
- ✂ Assemble a centaur or bow and arrow from pipe cleaners.
- ✂ Carnations are the zodiac flower of Sagittarius. Have a dye experiment and learn how to change the colour of some white carnations.

Here's an idea!

Purple is Sagittarius' lucky colour. Why not use purple dye in your experiment?

- ✂ Learn how to draw a centaur by following a tutorial. Have a look online for a video or step-by-step instructions to get you started.
- ✂ Build a centaur from recycled materials that you would otherwise throw away. For an extra challenge, try using split pins to make its legs move.
- ✂ Sagittarians are curious and on a quest for knowledge. Make a chatterbox to help you get to know another person. Why not use our Fortune Teller resource to get you started?
- ✂ Draw or embroider the Sagittarius constellation to help you learn its shape so you might spot it in the night sky.
- ✂ Make some jewellery from turquoise beads.

Why?

Turquoise is the birthstone for Sagittarius as the gemstone is said to represent emotional balance and communication. Some say it also has healing benefits.

- ✂ The symbol for Sagittarius is an arrow. Design your own arrow sign to point someone in the right direction.
- ✂ Hammer some nails into a board in the positions of the Sagittarius stars. Then, use some thread to trace the centaur shape.

Food

PAWPRINT
BADGES

- ♆ Sagittarians are curious. Try a new food that you've never tasted before.
- ♆ Prepare a meal or some treats with a strong flavour or colour. Sagittarians are known for their intensity and passion.
- ♆ Enjoy some bread and meat, or a meat-alternative, like the centaurs in Greek Mythology. You might think they would eat grass like horses, but they wouldn't be able to chew it with their human teeth!
- ♆ Decorate a cake to look like a centaur.
- ♆ Put together a meal with purple foods, this is the lucky colour for Sagittarius.
- ♆ Sagittarians are described as adaptable and flexible. Adapt your favourite recipe to be suitable for someone with a specific dietary requirement.
- ♆ Bake Off winner Candice Brown is a Sagittarius. Have a go at following one of her recipes and bake your own show stopper.
- ♆ Show your Sagittarius passion and tell someone about your favourite food. Why not whip up your own version for them to try?
- ♆ It is recommended that Sagittarians follow a high-protein diet. Fix up a meal that includes high-protein foods such as poultry, fish, eggs, or yogurt.
- ♆ Sagittarians like to explore. Try a cuisine from a different country.
- ♆ Assemble some fruit skewers. Use half a strawberry, or cut another type of fruit into a triangle to turn your fruity snack into an arrow.

Here's an idea!

Why not use some Sagittarian fruit to make your skewers? For example, various sources suggest plums, cherries, grapes, oranges, lemons and guava.

- ♆ It is recommended that Sagittarians drink lots of water. Make a tracker to help you stay hydrated throughout the day.
- ♆ Go on a 'quest for knowledge' and find out where your food comes from.
- ♆ Bake some cupcakes or ice some biscuits and use sweetie laces to top them with a bow and arrow.
- ♆ Use sweeties to learn the shape of the Sagittarius constellation.

Games

- ♈ Sagittarians are described as 'spiritual warriors' for doing what's right. Stand up for what you believe in with a game of sit down, stand up.

- ♈ Have a go at an adventurous activity like white water rafting.

Why?
