

Have a Game of 'Frozen Egg Finds'

For leaders

For young and older groups alike. Create a set of frozen 'dinosaur eggs' by placing everyday objects (that won't dissolve or be damaged by water) inside balloons. Fill them with water to create different sized eggs and freeze them. Hide the frozen eggs for your young people to find. Once found, groups should guess what is hidden inside each egg. Now for the fun part... Once everyone has guessed let groups take it in turns to smash the frozen eggs to reveal the answers.
