Make edible spiders using biscuits and liquorice laces as a less scary and much tastier option to the real thing

Here's an idea

There are lots of Halloween themed foody crafts you could try like making marshmallow ghosts or jelly worms- why not do some research and create something of your own design. Alternatively find out a little more about Halloween and why we celebrate it.

Why?

Spiders are often associated with the spooky celebration of halloween and giant spiders are often depicted as monsters in films.
