

Play a wide game.

For leaders

Summer is a great time to get out an about and enjoy those long, hot evenings (well, not so much in the UK but you get the idea!). A wide game is an extended, outside game that gets you solving problems and collecting things (like a treasure hunt) they're a great idea for camps/holidays, or if you're lucky enough to have a large outside space at your meeting place you could play a wide game for the whole of a unit meeting.
