

Eggs are a symbol of new life. Complete the 'protect your egg' challenge. Each person in the unit gets an egg and draws a face on, takes it home and looks after it for a week. The following week all eggs must be brought back for the challenge... Using only a newspaper, protect your egg, then drop it from the top of a step ladder to see if it survives. Alternatively make egg bread with the returned eggs

For leaders

Getting each of your girls to take an egg home and look after it for a week is a great way of teaching them about responsibility. You could even set challenges for the eggs like being photographed in the most adventurous/hottest/coldest place.
