

Play a game of 'Find Nessie'.

For leaders

This can be a great game for all ages if adapted appropriately. For younger children why not develop their dexterity by having them find a Nessie toy in jelly/sand/shredded paper? For slightly older ones how about a hunt around the meeting place to find printed pictures of nessie and for the oldest age groups how about a scavenger hunt around the local area to find items with first letters that spell out Loch Ness Monster?
