

Play winter 'splat'

For leaders

One person stands in the centre of the circle and is the 'shooter', everyone else stands around them in a circle. When the 'shooter' shoots someone, they shout 'Snowball'. The person they shoot must duck down to miss the snowball and the two people on each side of them are then in a race to shoot the other first shouting 'Ice'. The person who gets shot first is then out. If the first person fails to duck down, they then are out and must sit down. The final 2 people standing must stand back to back and pace away from each other on the shooters count. When the shooter shouts snowball they must turn around and shoot shouting 'Ice'. The winner is the last person standing
