

Have a go at being a knight and have a jousting competition

For leaders

You will need a spear - we don't suggest using real ones as it could get a little messy! Instead why not use old broom handles with tennis balls stuck to the end? You could try hitting targets that get smaller each time. If you're that bit older and you'd like more of a challenge why not have a go at riding a 'horse' (here substitute for a skateboard or similar) whilst trying to hit your targets? Don't forget helmets and knee/elbow protection!
