Fill up your 12-Day Badgevent calendar with festive fun! Cut out, fold and glue the cards together to make neat little activity cards that fit in the Badgevent envelope pockets.

Playdough Puds.

Squash and shape a batch of playdough Christmas puddings. Make them realistic or go crazy with multicoloured puds - the choice is yours!

Why not make your playdough smell like Christmas too by mixing in a teaspoon of cinnamon or nutmeg?

Here's an Idea!

Don't fancy some of the activities in your 24-Day calendar? Swap some of them out for these!

Wrap pigs in blankets.

Some believe a Christmas dinner isn't a Christmas dinner without pigs in blankets...

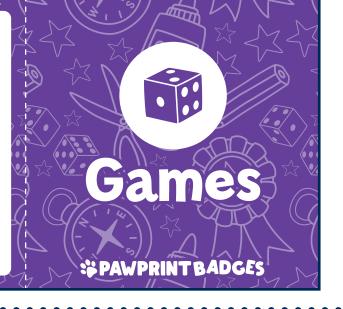

Wrap some cute little piggies in their cosy warm bacon blankets. Enjoy them as part of your Christmas dinner, on a sandwich with some stuffing, or as a snack.

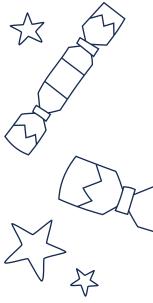

Guess the goody.

Gather a few varieties of cheese and blindfold the players. Can you guess which cheese is which just by using your senses?

Don't have any cheese? No worries! Swap the cheese out for different varieties of lebkuchen or gingerbread instead.

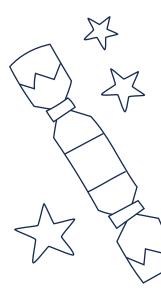

Festive film.

Get snuggled down under a warm blanket with a friend or family member and watch a Christmas film of your choice.

Why not enjoy your film with one of the dishes you've made for one of your food activities?

Gingerbread house.

Design (or build) a house fit for the Gingerbread Man himself. Go extravagant with a gingerbread mansion or keep it sweet with a little gingerbread cottage.

Use any method and materials you like to decorate or construct your gingerbread house.

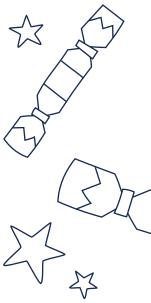

Xmas around the world!

From a French Bûche de Noël to a Mexican Ensalada Nochebuena, enjoy a variety of traditional Christmas dishes from around the world.

Check out our 'Christmas Around the World' Challenge Pack for more food activity ideas.

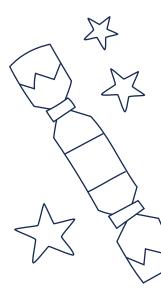

Sprout roulette.

The leader of the game wraps at least 5 chocolates and 1 sprout in the same wrappers. One by one, players take it in turns to pick a chocolate out of the box. At the end, everyone opens their chocolate together. The player that has picked the sprout is not only out of the next game but has to eat the sprout too!

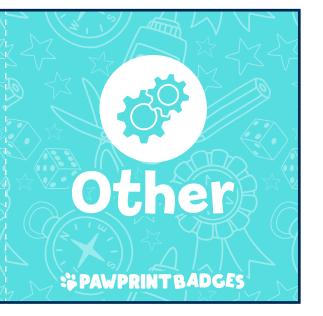

Milk and Carrots.

Put milk and carrots out for Santa and his reindeer on Christmas Eve! Is there anything more magical?!

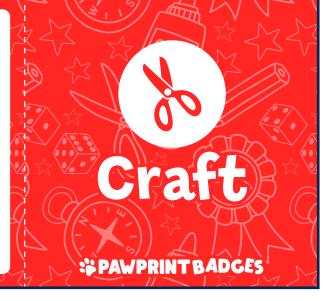

Not everyone around the world leaves milk and carrots. Why not discover which other foods and drinks from around the world are left out for Santa?

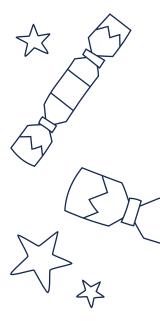

Christmas centre piece.

Collect a variety of natural materials from your garden or local area and arrange them together to create a centre piece that will add a fresh feel to your festive dinner table.

Why not switch out the natural materials for festive foods instead? Then you can eat it too!

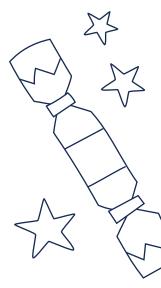

Candy cane bouquet.

Create your very own candy cane bouquet! Finish off your bouquet with a festive ribbon. Why not use your sweet bouquet as a colourful Christmas decoration or gift to a friend or family member?

Head to our 'Christmas' Pinterest board for some inspiration.

Pig roll races.

Game 1: Roll a pig in blanket as fast as you can to the finish line using only your tongue - race against a partner for extra competition.

Game 2: Wrap yourself in a blanket and roll yourself to the finish line instead!

Mud Mince Pies.

Get messy in the mud outside and make some mud mince pies. Mix up your ingredients in a washable bowl and spice up your pies with a sprinkle of real spices! Pile your pies into an actual baking tray and pretend to 'cook' them in the oven. As nice as they may look, they are definitely not edible...
